Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

WASHINGTON, August 17, 1868.

COLLUSION.

The "impeachment" between the President and Commissioner Rollins having been settled, the latter in order to prevent his falling back, laid in the other which from his co-operation with the President for the moment elevated him, has been making nominations for Supervisors and other offices of internal revenue as well as to Secretaries.

Secretary McCallum that the Secretary refuses to confirm them, and hopes thereby to keep his name in the newspapers. Secretary McCallum has declared his intention of making the appointments to the several offices himself.

WILLIAM C. ROBERTSON.

While President Johnson does not express himself as unreservedly upon the question of upon whose side his influence shall be thrown in the coming Presidential contest as his friends wish, I am enabled to state that General Forest's change that he will support the radical candidate is entirely groundless. The failure of the New York convention to nominate him, by which he thought he deserved for his fight against radicals, somewhat dampened his ardor in the Democratic cause, but as an event could hardly occur which would force him to affiliate with those who have been endeavoring to compass his overthrow.

A STAGE OF WAR.

It is rumored in diplomatic circles in this city that a war is imminent between France and Prussia. Those who have been watching the course of the two countries pretend to discern in the late speech of Emperor Napoleon, in which such plausible assurances for the "peace of Europe" were given, covert menace which augurs ill for the particular peace between France and Prussia.

The Friends of the President say that he will embark for Europe on the 15th of March next, and seek in foreign ports recuperation from the most arduous term of office ever served by a President of the United States.

HANDS.

The Postmaster General, together with most of those who sought the seashore and the cool and shady places during the heated term, has returned to the capital and again entered upon the discharge of his duties.

WHAT THE TRAITOR SAID.

The New York Journal says that the editor of the Louisville Journal is very savage and relentless in his warfare upon the carpet-baggers and mentions the fact as though it were not praiseworthy, the unsophisticated old philistine!

Rollins Restored to His Duties—Harrisburg, Pa.—Bills Passed—Bill Authorizing Legal Compensation—Discharge of Paymasters—Re-election of Alaska Senator—No Bills on the New Senate Committee.

WARRIOR. August 17:

Sgt. John O. Hawlings was confined to his bed in the hospital at Washington, but had recovered so far as to be able to get up and walk about the hospital grounds.

GAR. John O. Hawlings is confined to his bed in the hospital at Washington, but has recovered so far as to be able to get up and walk about the hospital grounds.

For the week ending the 25th two hundred and eighty-five men have been sent from the Patent Office. During the past week three hundred and eight-eight applications and one case filed.

BILLINGSBY.

The section of the new tax law prohibiting the distillation or rectifying spirits in distilleries within 600 feet of each other, and the same provision in the bill of inquiry, as its operation will be to deprive one of the establishments to the largest distilleries in that proximity.

PATMATES EATEN.

The following named additional Paymasters of the army have been mustered out and honorably discharged from their services due to longer requiring.

Brevet Lieut. Col. Thos. H. Gardner, Brevet Lt. Col. S. H. Hunt, and Brevet Lt. H. E. Malcolm.

ALASKA.

Solicitor Buckley, of the Internal Revenue Bureau, has transmitted to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue a copy of the statement of interpreting the law concerning the above statement.

Attorney General Evans has referred a copy of the statement to the Department of the Interior for the consideration of a Collector for Alaska. He says the office should be set up in operation as soon as possible, and that he will not wait for the end of his term of office to act.

I do not find it necessary to call the attention of such officers.

Grand Rally Last Night.

Inauguration of a Huge Seymour and Blair Pole.

Speech by Hon. E. S. Craig.

squarely. Which party, then, deserves your countenance and support? I will not pause for a reply. The radicals have presented as their standard-bearer a distinguished gentleman who has been the Lieutenant General of the armies—Ulysses S. Grant—and Schuyler Colfax for the second office under their platform. They are your enemies, my countrymen. The times are before you! I have no personal acquaintance with them. What they have done, the broad pages of history will perpetuate either to their fame or disgrace. Grant has been as dumb as an oyster since his nomination, and the American people know of him little else than he is placed upon the Chicago platform.

I tell you that when the ball starts in Maine and rolls on through New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Michigan, and on to the great West, the name of Grant and his wife will be weighed in the balance and found wanting, and the names that proudly float from the flagstaffs will be seen to be of the same weight as the champion of American liberty and above the temple of our country's fame with undimmed lustre. The Democratic party proposes for the highest place within your gift a man who ranks among the most illustrious statesmen who ever have filled the pages of history, a man—his name is Seymour and Blair. This standard of victory can be seen, very distinctly, to-day, in the iron columns of the signs that the heavens are about to fall to interpret right. The patriotic masses of the Twelfth Ward deserve great credit for this marked addition to the Democratic bimocracy of the metropolis.

JUDGE CRAIG'S SPEECH.

When the hour for the incisive argument arrived, the speaker was not to be found in the hall. Several of the invited guests were not in attendance.—Hon. Bayard Winchell being too unwell to respond, and the young Democrats Alfred T. Page and George W. Ward being absent.

The report of the Committee on Finance was then read and adopted, a synopsis of which is as follows:

NOTES OF THE REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Indebtedness of the city, being an increase of $2,000 over last year, which was caused by the purchase of grounds for the Second and Third Ward schools, rent of extra buildings, and the paying of general and repair of all the schools.

The report of the Committee on Education was then read and adopted, a synopsis of which is as follows:

NOTES OF THE REPORT OF THE EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

In the matter of the Rev. Dr. Davidson, a bankrupt—petition for discharge filed.

A motion to substitute $3 for $2.50, as compensation per month, for the services of the Twelfth Ward schoolmaster, was carried.

A motion to adjourn.

THE DAILY JOURNAL.

One Term.

The DAILY JOURNAL is delivered in the city at $6 per month, payable to the carrier. It is sent by mail at $6 per annum, payable in advance.

Mr. J. S. Sinclair, President of the Scott County Fair Association, will accept our thanks for a complimentary ticket to their exhibition to come off at the grounds near Georgetown, beginning on the 15th instant.

Courier-Constituent.

The Convention will hold its regular bi-weekly meeting at the Council Chamber this evening at half-past seven o'clock. A most interesting session is looked for, as the report of the police committee, and probably that of the health committee will be opened.

Impressions Received.

The burial of Mr. J. B. Lester at half-past one o'clock yesterday morning and of Mr. G. B. Williams at three in the afternoon, were largely attended. Mr. Lester's remains were in charge of the Odd-Fellows and Mr. Williams' in charge of the Old-Fellows and Masons.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord's Wedding.

A grand wedding was held last night at Webster Hall upon the occasion of the first appearance of this popular troupe. The variety and merit of the programme far exceeded the great expectations of all present, and with the exception of a few, again-to-night. A good troupe like this will always draw big audiences.

Wagons Smashed.

About eleven o'clock yesterday morning the horses attached to the wagons going belonging to Charles Fisher were captured by a gang of desperadoes, and driven through the streets of Marion, making Disaster Street for a short distance. Between Seventh and Eighth streets the wagon collided with a street car, by which the former vehicle was the cause of injury to the driver, and the wagon and the whole concern was pretty well smashed. Fortunately, the horses were not injured, and robbery avert.

Speaking in Reference.

Hon. M. C. Kerr, the able Representative of Indiana, will address the members of Jeffersonville, at their Wigwam, to-morrow evening.

Mr. Kerr's course in Congress, in looking after the interests of his constituents, is a subject of pride with which he commended and exposed the doctrines and measures of the radical majority in that body, have endeared him to the people of the Second District in an unusual degree. He will have a large audience to-morrow night.

John H. Jones.

The following parties were lodged yesterday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct: Godet, Coneyey, Mary, Keller, John Miller, and Walker, Temperance Club, and in the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd Streets.

Daniel Donehue and Daniel Conley were incarcerated at jail upon a like charge. We also saw several of the slate of the following parties: Clark, Allen, and others charged with committing robbery at the Blind Asylum; John Walker, m.c., accused of stealing corn from some one in the country; Henry Metcalf, alias Henry Miller, and William Myers, two negroes, accused of robbing a house of value from Mrs. Sawyer, who resides near the Oaklawn. Also Chas. Myers and Fred King, who were brought in for a forged check.

Mr. and Mrs. Clegg.

The great Marshal, Webb, Willam McCorkill, was put in Clay street station-house yesterday afternoon charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He had threatened to kill an officer, and the police, fearing for his safety, did not dare fire at him. He also fired at his pistol and came very near striking some little children that were passing near by at the time. Collier, a colored boy, up town "rough" and the hero of a hundred disengaged fights. In almost every instance he has been the aggressor. He gets into a street-car, a coffee-house, or any place where he can get a party among the inmates, and, with a knife or pistol like an Italian brigand, some one will end his sport for him but Webb, and the whole concern was pretty well smashed. Fortunately, the horses were not injured, and robbery avert.
